

Università di Pisa
Dipartimento di Scienze Politiche
Dottorato di ricerca in Scienze Politiche

European Board

International Workshop on Grounded Theory and Qualitative Research in the European Symbolic Interactionist Tradition

Pisa, 8th March, 2018.

Venue: Conference Room "Le Benedettine",
Lungarno Sidney Sonnino 19, Pisa

Morning Session

h. 9,30 Welcome introduction

Alessandro Balestrino – Head of Department of Political Sciences
– University of Pisa

Elena Dundovich – Director of PhD School in Political Sciences – University of Pisa

h. 9,45 Keynotes

Tony Bryant – Leeds Beckett University

The Really Very Curious Incident of the Grounded Theory Method: Continual Permutations of Misunderstandings

Thaddeus Muller, Lancaster University

"Emergence" and "Intuition" in Grounded Theory Building

Krzysztof Konecki, Anna Kacperczyc - University of Lodz

Classic Grounded Theory – the Latest Version. Interpretation of Classic Grounded Theory as a Meta-Theory for Every Research

Andrea Salvini – University of Pisa

The Role of Sensitizing Concepts in (Constructivist) Grounded Theory. Reflections from a Research Experience

h.12,00 Debate

h. 12,30 Light Lunch at Benedettine's

Afternoon Session

h. 14,00 Round Table

Robert Dingwall – Nottingham Trent University

What Counts as Evidence in Qualitative Research?

Emma Engdahl – University of Gothenburg

Making Data into Evidence: the Aim of Theorizing

Gregory Smith – Salford University

Understanding the Grounding of Goffman's Project: A Conjecture and Two Footnotes

Vessela Misheva – Uppsala University

How We Come to Understand the Other: Colley's Principle of Sympathetic Introspection.

Irene Psaroudakis – University of Pisa

Evidence and Interpretation in Jane Addams' Works

h. 15,45 Contributions

Andrew Blasko – Abvm Consulting

Michael Dellwing – University of Kassel

Judita Kasperuniene – Vytautas Magnus University

16,30 End of the Workshop. Conclusion and Farewell by:
Andrea Salvini – University of Pisa